TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

"Saint Martin's summer, halcyon days."
—1 King Henry VI.

Guy's Cliffe Mill, Warwick. This mill, which stands on the opposite side of the river to Guy's Cliffe, is built on the site of another mill which existed in the time of William the Conqueror. The present building, which is very picturesque, with a well-carved balcony, is often called the Saxon Mill.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)
